

Astrology of Mental Well-Being & Life Transitions

Times of instability and insecurity create mental & emotional stress affecting us collectively as well as personally. In astrology we understand planetary energies as representing psycho-emotional principles that encompass the different layers of our inner and outer reality.

During this 1-day workshop we will explore the highs and lows of human experience as expressed in the horoscope. We then will investigate major life transitions & times of profound change as they are symbolised by the cycles of the outer planets.
